

THE UPPER DECK COMPANY HOBBY CLASSIFICATION AND QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

HOBBY STORE:

A hobby store's primary business operates out of a permanent storefront location. The majority of retail card shop business must be in trading cards and sports memorabilia with the balance of sales, if any, related to the collectibles. Interior decoration must clearly show sports memorabilia, sports advertisements or posters. Collector supplies are sold as well, and dealers provide advice to collectors about cards, companies, hobby publications, etc. Large mail-order business may be included in this classification. Multiple store owners will receive a separate allocation per qualified location. If multiple stores exist, please note the locations on the application to inform your account rep on which location will be the primary shipping address. If a store is sold, the new owner may assume the account as long as qualifications and requirements are met. Product and offerings will be sent only to the store address listed on the application and will not be forwarded. An account may qualify for only one classification. One allocation will be provided per account.

To qualify as a hobby store/large mail-order account, you must enclose the following documentation with your completed application:

Please provide the following along with this application:

- 1.) Photos of the interior and exterior of the store.
 - Exterior photos must clearly show store sign and address
 - Interior photos must clearly show entire contents of store. 1 photo for each wall in the store for a total of 4 or more
- 2.) Unexpired business license and/or resale permit or tax ID reflecting the name and address of the store.
- 3.) Signed tax resale card (enclosed with application)

Note: To remain active, direct accounts are required to purchase a minimum of $2,500 in sports card product per year
